

News: Secondment Activities in Bucharest

Assoc. Prof. Oya Topdemir Koyigit from Istanbul University has completed her secondment in Bucharest, Romania, at ASRO between 01 and 30 th of September 2025

During her secondment Assoc. Prof. Oya Topdemir Koyigit visited several companies and NGOs and met key people to convey her to the experts in the field such as the All International Women and Youth Association (TÜMKAD) and the president of the Romanian Women's Association (ROMKADEM), The National Trade Union Confederation MERIDIAN from Romania, Union of International Democrats (UID), Turkish Businessmen Association (TIAD), Romanian Association for Supporting Life (ROYAD), Romanian Trabzonspor Supporters Association, Balkans Foundation, Turkish Embassy and the Yunus Emre Institute. During her visits she also interviewed with a member of the European Economic and Social Committee EESC/specialist in international and social relations. Along with the NGO's she also visited companies from various industries such as construction, banking/finance, household appliances, automotive and a consulting company. During her visits she discussed with them about the project task and received information about these organizations' experiences with ESG reporting by taking into consideration of cultural relations between Türkiye and Romania, Romanian culture, the position of women in business life, female entrepreneurship, empowering women through participation in business life, and the role of Turkish-Romanian marriages in these relations.

Romanya National University of Science and Technology POLITEHNICA Üniversitesi'nin koordinatörlüğünde Fransa, İtalya, Bulgaristan, Moldova, Polonya, Çekya ve Türkiye (İstanbul Üniversitesi)'den üniversitelerden oluşan konsorsiyumun parçası olarak HORIZON Avrupa Programı Marie Skłodowska Curie Alanı-Değişim Programı (MSCA-SE) kapsamında "Sürdürülebilirliğin Dönüşümü: Kaliteli Bilgi, Daha İyi Sürdürülebilirlik Raporlaması Uygulamaları ve İşletmelerin Yenilenme Kapasitesi için Araştırma ve İnovasyon Ağı" başlıklı araştırma projemiz kapsamında Romanya'dayım.

Bugün, General of the National Trade Union Confederation MERIDIAN'in genel sekreteri ve European Economic and Social Committee'de (EESC) uluslararası ve sosyal ilişkiler uzmanı olan sayın Dumitru Fornea ile Türkiye ve Romanya arasındaki ekonomik, sosyal ve kültürel ilişkilerin sürdürülebilirliği üzerine verimli bir görüşme gerçekleştirdik.

Kendisine teşekkür eder, hediye ettiğim kitabımı da keyifle okumasını dilerim.

Dumitru Fornea, Oya Topdemir ile birlikte ParkLake Shopping Center'de 📖 ilhamlı

hissediyorum.

Today, I have met Assoc prof. Dr. Oya Topdemir Koçyiğit, from the Anthropology Department at Istanbul University. She came to Romania as a part of the research project "Sustainability Transformation: Research and Innovation Network for Quality Information, Better Sustainability Reporting Practices and Businesses Resilience" (STAR) as part of the HORIZON Europe Program Marie Skłodowska Curie Area-Exchange Program, a consortium consisting of universities from France, Italy, Bulgaria, Moldova, Poland, the Czech Republic, and Türkiye (Istanbul University), coordinated by the Romanian National University of Science and Technology POLITEHNICA.

We had a conversation about the sustainability of economic, social, and cultural relations between Türkiye and Romania. I can't wait to read her book she gave me.
